CONSUMPTION CURED: BE OLARK & CO. S GENUINE COD-LIVER OIL never disappoints, and nine years' experience has proved it supernot to all others and the only reliable cure for CONSUMPTION. As there is a great deal of spurious Oil in the market, adulterated with east oil, whale oil, &c., &c., too much care cannot be taken to procure the genuine. Our Oil is made at our own factory, in Newfoundiand, and each bottle has our signature over the cork. Be careful to get Hersman, Clark & Co. S, for since the death of Mr. Rushton, our late partner, there has been an article introduced called Rushton's, which is in no way connected with R. C. & Co. or H. C. &

RAND'S PLEMIUM STOCK wind extent. It has, on seeral occasions, contended for the award of merit wit other mills, and particularly with the famed "Life Giant," and particularly with the famed "Life Giant," and in every instance has taken the preumn. At a recent trial with the latter upon the Fair Gunds of the Southwestern Agricultural and Mechancal Association, it again took the prize. It stands pow without a rival.

This mill combines thre principles—that of cutting with several steel blades with that of crusting and grinding. It is heavier nd stronger, and less liable to break or get out of reps. than any other mill before the public. It is more easy adjusted, being set coarse or fine by a single screw-hich may be done by a boy ten years eld. It may t used for cutting and grinding apples, turnips, beet and rutabagas; and with small additional expensevill cut and grinding and sind sing latter, than any the done by a boy ten years eld. It may t used for cutting and grinding surface, and with shuck, which can be dot by no other mill extant. - NOVEMBER 7, 1856. The editor of the Journal has some fault to find with comments on the election of last Tuesday. It was the most quiet, orderly election, the editor ever witnessed, and he is grieved and indignant that extravagant credit is not given. It is very true that the election was very quiet and orderly, compared with what we have seen here within the past two years, and we give all parties to whom we are indebted for the result our thanks. Some of them belonged to the selfstyled American party, that was; but we shall not shut our eyes to lesser crimes, because we have escaped the greater. If we had entire soenrity for the future, we might forget the past; but we have no such security, and we know that the election in this city last Tuesday was not a fair one. The Fillmore party have no thirtyeight hundred legal votes in this city. We don't believe there is an honest Know-Nothing in this city is not at all likely that the frauds will be ferreted out and punished; it would require more time to such a matter. It is said that numbers of men keep their crudities to themselves. voted that were unknown to the judges, and some who were under age. The general impression is, it is well it is no worse; better have fraudulent voting than a roign of terror; but the less evil must not, therefore, be approved and sanctioned, because we have escaped the greater. We are not yet out of the reach of mob law. Its violence was suspended, but not suppressed, and nothing but the vigilance and frequent warnings saved us last Tuesday. Previous to the election, legal woters were warned not to vote, and threatened with violence if they did. These threats, slong with the recollections of 1855, produced the effect. The naturalized citisens did not come to the polls; and this was, perhaps, the chief cause of the quiet the city enjoyed. We have no idea that peace and a fair election was any part of the programme provided for the day, by the parties that have managed our elections for the past year or two; and a little excitement, one slight incident to furnish the opportunity, would have found the preparations all made. No city is safe

All the frauds and cheating did no good; they didn't win ; on the contrary, they will only aid in the mortification and disappointment of their suthors. In the mean time, the Democracy feet much like the man who was playing a game of cards. A friend warned him that there was cheating at the table to his detriment. Never mind, said he, I am a thousand dollars winner.

and unscrupulous men, and stimulated by the bigotry of race and religion. The men interested in the peace and good order of society will never furnish so convenient a cloak for vice and crime.

Men should not have a chance to perpetrate their raspalities, and conceal its hideous features under the guise of party virtue. But, except for the order of the city hereafter, it is no matter of interest with us at present, and the party to be affected have no future to look to. They will have to invent some new creed and new name, and start a party on the ruins of the American

The editor of the Journal made much add on account of the appointment of "two Sag-Nicht | the last Governor's election. Judges" at Gillman's precinct, and endeavored to create the impression that the "Americans" should, on that account, guard and watch the polls, to prevent the perpetration of fraud. What arrant humbug, what miserable party trickery! It is unworthy of any one knowing the community of gentlemen who vote at that point, and who know with what jealous bonor they guard, not only their own, but each other's rights, to insinuate that any fraud could be practiced by either party at that precinct. But the object of the Journal was perceptible to any one at all in the habit of observing its tactios. There are a good many Garman gardenersmen who are quiet, industrious citizen -- svote at Gillman's, and of course the frequent references to this precinct was to intimidate them away from the polls. It so turned out that one of the "Sag-Nicht" Judges did not reach the precinct in time to act, and Mr. John Herr, a good Know-Nothing, was appointed in his place. Everything was conducted in an orderly manner as it would be doubtless, at every county precinct. if the city rufflans and scoundrels were kept

No one considers that the appointment of John Herr contributed any more to the fairness of the election at that point, than if any one of the many upon to act.

The Journal was esreful to state that two "Sag-Nicht" Judges were appointed at Gillman's-will it state, for the information of its readers, that two well known gentlemen of different politics acted -or if it states that "one Sag-Nicht" served as Judge, that "one Hindoo" served with him?

Again, while the Journal is telling this, will was conducted by Know-Nothing officers throughthat in this ward the most glaring frauds were committed. Shame on such conduct-such mean partisan rascality!

Truth and right will prosper, and hence the intelligent, pure, and patriotic citizens of our Commonwealth have rebuked the fraud practiced up on the Democracy in Louisville. Kentucky stands

From different places in the State, we have accounts of mean frauds at the present election. Poreigners were refused a right to vote, that had not been citizens of the United States a year after they had gotten their papers. This is but a mean party fraud, against the plain provisions of law. Others were insulted and abused at the polls, and, in many instances, prevented from voting. Captain Ingraham pointed his gans at the minions of the Austrian tyrant, that dared to seize a man who had only declared his intention to become a citizen, and every man with an American heart applauded the act, and felt proud that the mantle of the great republic was a shield against despotie violence. Here, however, is a party that sees no sacredness in the seal of the great American Republic, borne by the poor foreigner who has renounced his allegian tyrants, and places himself under the stars and stripes. The world honored the American name for the prompt act of fidelity to the promise of protection implied. Here, however, is a party rible condition. that descorates the name American, that impudently insults, beats, and abuses, on American soil, the adopted citisen promised full protection, under the solemn seal of the great republic. They call themselves Americans, and prove it by trampling under foot American pledges and promises They need a Captain lograham to vindicate the ess of American promises! We have known several instances, in which oreigners, in the anguish of deep disappointment fore their naturalization papers to pieces, that rights they guaranteed; and no wonder. It is gratiring to know, that the verdict of this Union falls with crushing weight upon this new erood and practice. It is not supported by a hardfel eron when aided by all the popularity of

The Demosrat will, now that the election is er, be devoted to matters of local interest, and, o far as it oan, will aid in building up the reputation of our almost ruined city. The reign of mob law, we hope, is over; the people are resum ing their sober senses, and will, doubtless, again mite as with one heart, one voice, and one purpose, in restoring confidence among our people, and going on in the beaten pathway to the glorious destiny awaiting our city, somewhat clogged and hindered by the reign of terror inaugurated in August, 1855.

The Know-Nothings, when the prospen other States looked gloomy, held up New York as a last refuge. Fillmore would carry New York beyond doubt, was the flattering unction they applied to soothe their anguish. We told them of the folly of such hopes. No man familiar with the political movements of New York could have een mistaken. The contest in New York, as in every other free State, has been between Buchanan and Fremont.

Nigger Worshippers in Kentucky. There are some members of the Know-Nothing earty in Kentucky, who, in their bitterness over the defeat of Fillmore, are expressing the hope that New York will go for Fremont. This shows now empty are all their protestations for the Union ion, and especially for Southern rights. The expression is infamous, and should stamp its authors raitors to Kentucky and the South.

We caution our readers against any re- 273. Democratic gain of 97 on Clarke's vote. iance on the speculations about elections in the telegraphic dispatches. We had a dispatch, on Wednesday night, that gave a few counties from that will put down their vote at such a figure. It Indiana, and added, by way of comment, "the result doubtful." Every man of sense knew the State had gone for Buchanan by an overwhelming and attention than any one will be likely to give majority. Reporters so ignorant of parties should > Anathemas not loud but deep are being eaped upon the Journal by the thousands of its own partisans who have lost money, bet upon the basis of its political calculations. Several widemouthed Know-Nothings in Louisville, who have regarded it as their political Bible, are swearing vengeance against it, and declaring emphatically that they will never believe it again.

We find the following in yesterday's Indinapolis Sentinel-the first news we have received from Central Illinois. It doesn't read like the news from Chicago:

Returns from Central Illinois in dicate that the State has gone largely for Buchanan. In the Seventh District, Shaw and Allen are elected to Congress; Allen for the short term

It is time now for the miserable factions to reflect seriously on the past. Never was a contest so marked by falsehood, fraud, and knavery, to say nothing of the vulgarity and blackguardism that have disgraced the canvass. It is over now. as long as it suffers itself to be managed by secret | and the lesson is inculcated that isms invented for councils, liable to be controlled by irresponsible the times will not pay expenses.

Great Promises and Slender Per-formances.

In 1852, the organ here promised nearly all the ates to General Scott, and gave him four; this year, its promises were uncommonly extravagant to Fillmore, and he has got one State. Will the organ try it again ?

The American Party!!! Isn't it a melancholy reflection for the brethren, that there are so few Americans in the country, that the foreigners have so out-voted them? They aight to be more alarmed than ever, when they look at the paucity of their numbers.

Journal Improving in Knowledge. The editor has discovered at last that the contest is between Buchanan and Fremont. If he continues to advance in intelligence, he will learn, after awhile, what the red heart means, and the white one with a black cross.

LARGE GAINS .- be official vote of Warren county, Ky., shows a Democratic gain of 91 since Christian county, in the Second District, gives Democratic gain of 203.

"His Life is Without a Stain." Says Rufus Choate:

"James Buchanan has long experience in pub lic affairs; his commanding capacity is universally acknowledged; his life is without a stain.

Fillmore and Fremont are neck and neck in the ontest. Fillmore beats Fremont in fifteen States, while Fremont beats Fillmere in sixteen !

Fremont has outrun Fillmore in Indiana but the latter may be consoled, he has beater Fremont in Kentucky.

BLACK REPUBLICAN TREASON AND INFIDELITY The following is one amongst thousands of evidences that the legitimate tendency of Abolitionism is to infidelity, and that Black Republicanism is but another name for Abolitionism:

BOLDLY AND RIGHTLY STATED .- In the address written and reported by Gerrit Smith, and adopted by the Jerry Rescue Convention at Syracuse, October 1, 1856, Mr. Smith utters a great truth election at that point, then if any one of the many gentlemen voting at that precinct had acted instead. Still the rule of making an equal distribution of the officers of the election is best, and beside, it has grown to be a common law of the continuous and seems of the common law of the continuous and seems of the country and seems of the cou country, and we are glad that Mr. Herr was called even to the Bible and Christianity, because they are the Bible and Christianity, we are bound to resist the claim." Amen! and amen! This is the way to uproot superstition, to advance mental freedom, and to break the chains of priesteraft.

THE MANUFACTURE OF PAPER, AND ITS CON-SUMPTION .- There are now 750 paper mills in the United States, with 2,000 steam engines constantly in operation. These milis produced last year also inform its readers that the Sixth Ward poll 270,000,000 pounds of paper, and as a pound and quarter of rage were required for each pound out-judges, clerk, sheriff, and hangers on-and of paper, 400,000,000 pounds of the raw material were therefore consumed in this way, supplied from the United States and the continent of En-

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer, 6th.] Letter from Andrew Finlay. The letter appended below was handed us by a friend of the writer, and we publish it to afford him a chance to defend himself. As to his guilt or innocence, we can say nothing; but if he can prove an alibi, the probability is that the officers who arrested him were mistaken in their man. Give a dog a bad name, and the cry of "wolf" is at once raised against him, and it may be possible that this would apply to Andy Finlay. It is charged in the Albany papers that he was con-cerned in the Marths Washington affair. Of that he was only suspected here among some. He was never arrested, we believe, on account of it. Here is the letter, which may be read by all those

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct- 30, 1856. MESSES. EDITORS: I am again brought before the world on a crimical charge; but of this charge I am innecent, so held me God. Having no movey and no friends, what can I do, with the influence of the banks and the press against me? I can in Cincinnati will ferret this out, which can easily be done; for I went down to New Orleans in company with Mr. Speers, in March last, and returned in April. Mr. Speers can tell you the name of the boat we took passage on. I stopped at my father's house, No. 194 Sixth street, until about the 16th or 12th of May; and this corgery wacommitted on the 5th of May. So, how in the name of God could I have done it? I can prove by honorable gentlemen what my business was in New York at the time it is said I was there What could have been my object in remaining What sould have been my object in remaining there if I had sommitted the forgery? The boat or which I returned from New Orleans to Louisille was the Empress; from there I took passage on the Telegraph for Cincinnation the register of which bost my name will be found. I have done overything that a man could do, since my firmer troubles, to do right. I have often tried to got a situation, and my dear wife has done the sime, as a cutter.

You have known me longer than any one else in Cineinnati. I have a good heart, but a faolish
one. It is hard for an inneent man to suffer for a guilty one, especially when he is doing all i his power to earn an honest livelihood. It has been published in all the papers here that I was connected with the Martha Washington conspir acy, and burit that boat. You well know that never was arrested, nor had I anything to do wish it. Please expect this in your paper. See Robt Baker, at the St. Nicholas, on Walout street, and I trist God will reward you for a may do for ms. I am innecent, so help me God.

A FUSS IN THE FAMILY .-- A young married pai rrived in this city yesterday from Baffalo, whose leparture from that place was attended with cone whose naples anthess was aggravated by i publicity. The bride is the daughter of a weathy and aristocratic mechant in Budslo, and one of the most lovely and accomplished we men of that liky, where leveligess and accomplishments seem atural to their sex. The husband is a very re spectable young gentlemen, every way save in wealth, an equal to the lady. The marriage, being by the ladi's fathe . was privately niand by a clergym t, yesterday marning and the bridal party had just arrived at the railroad depot to take passage for New York, when they were vertaken by the braher of the bride, who did no know of their marrage, and was led to believ that his sister had scriffeed herself. A renconter ensue between him and the husband, during which is (the brother) drow a pistol, it was immediately agen from him and fired in the air by the groomman, who was in attendance, and the parties separated by him and another gen-tleman. The husband then claimed an explana-tion with the broter—exhibited the marriage ertificate, and at occa relieved his fears. Th rother then ran to the father, who hastened t the cars, read the cetificate, fretted a little, as old gentlemen generally to when called up too early in the morning; graned his blessing to the happy pair, and got ashore just as the last bell rang. Or in her eyes found heavenly graces—Hoved her to her finger tips—

I loved her to her finger tips—
I loved her to her finger tips—
Hoved her to her finger tips—
I loved her to her finger tips—
I loved her to her finger tips—
Her smile made all within me flutter;
In rounded b au'y was her arm,
Her il the hane was fat as buner.
No wonder that I loved her so,
But she was false as she was pretty,
And soon she sacked her little beau,
And took a big one from the city,
I owight him out one gloomy night—
"Twas one of love's extrement phases—
I aggravated him to fish,
But oh! he larruped me like blazes.

THEATER-MISS ALBERTINE'S BENEFIT .- The sedience last night was very fair, in point of num ers, and gave evidence of enjoying the performanses very much. In the play of "Linds," each character was well done, with evident improvement on the first presentation. The afterpiese gave Chanfrau and Miss Albertine an opportunity to show their superiority in a line of haracters very different from those in "Linda." To-night has been set apart for a benefit to Miss Albertine, and we trust she will have a crowded house, for she deservos it. On this eccasion will be performed, by especial request, " A Glance at New York," to be followed by "The Ocean Child." Scoure your seats early.

RESISTING AN OFFICER .- Considerable excitement was caused in Third street, near Market, last night about 11 o'clock, by load conversation, followed by the discharge of a pistol. A party of rowdies were creating a disturbance, which Offieer Arthur attempted to suppress. Two of the party resisted the efforts of the officer, one of them attempting to draw a knife, Mr. Arthur wrested the knife from him, at which time one of the men struck him a severe blow with a cane, and immediately started to run. Arthur pursued and fired upon him, but did not speceed in arrestinc him. Two coats, a vest, and a hat, belonging to the party, are in the custody of Officer Wetherford, at the Gathright House.

THE LECTURE SEASON .- Now that the excitements incident to politics are measurably subsi- ing alike; those platforms, broad as our continent, ding, we may hope that the public will turn its attention to pursuits more tast eful to the tranquil mind. Is the lecture season to pass unimproved? We observe that other western cities are making arrangements to secure the services of popular lecturers. Ik Marvel (Donald Mitchell, Esq.), has engagements to lecture in Cincinnati and other western cities soon. He sends his compliments to the Young Men's Christian Association of Louisville.

PORTER'S SPIRIT OF THE TIMES .- We have from the publishers this admirable chronicler of the torf and field. It is, in all the elements of fun. frolio, wit, and humor, decidedly the racicet pub-Meation of modern times. Porter is "spirit," and there is "many a spirit" in the issue of the lst inst. It is an indispensable to the gentleman the sporting man, and the growers of fine stock everywhere. Beside, it is the highest anthoritythe authority from waichthere isne appeal-in the settlement of all racing points and questions arising on the turf.

ASSASSINATION OF CRADDOCK .- It will be remembered that shortly after the assassination of Oraddock, in this county, last summer, a man by the name of King was arrested, charged with a connection with the murder. After an examination he was discharged, the testimony not being sufficient to convict him. In the recent investi gations before the Grand Jury, new facts have been developed which led to a stronger suspicion against King, and Officer Kirkpatrick arrested him, and he is now in jail, swaiting an examination.

The offense was fully proven, and the parties were held to bail for their good behavior six months-Clark in $200. and the others in $300, which they gave.

CHANPRAU IN A NEW CHARACTER -- Chapfran is a great genius, and stands as good a chance for the Presidency to-day, as Millard Fillmore. He has represented "Mose" in almost every conceivable character during his engagement hero. One of his admirers suggests that, in order to diversify the programme upon his benefit night, he should represent "Moses in the Ballrushes."

BERIOUS INJURY .- Two little boys had a quarsel yesterday about some trifle, in Upper Green street, which resulted in a fight between them, during which one of the boys, a son of Mr. Sautern, about twelve years of age, was thrown dewn, and his head coming in collision with a stone, he was very seriously, though it is hoped not fatally, putes have before afforded no example; that it MANSLAUGHTER .- George and William Coker were in Police Court yesterday upon the charge of causing the death of John Richter, at the Portland wharf, on Wednesday last. Rufus Cheste recently delivered a magnificent speech to the Democracy and national men at Lowell, Massachusetts. His suddence embraced ten thousand of the enlightened citizens of that the characteristic of the Democratic party was thin that the characteristic of the Democratic party was thin that the characteristic of the Democratic party was thin that it had burnt ever with that great master passion this hour demands—a youthful, we have the party was then the party was thin that the characteristic of the Democratic party was the that the characteristic of the D Sourlshing city. We regret that we cannot give been led by it, it may be so again; we may require to temper and restrain it, but to-day we this speech entire. Its great theme is the folly need it all, we need it all—the hopes—the boars and danger of geographical parties, and no one —the pride—the universal tolerans—the gas could present that subject in se many and such the many could present that subject in se many and such the many could be entirely all the traits—a licity of language and illustration.

trast between the present and past Presidential elections than the following :

Is there so one here who shares with me the nere, are there not hundreds here, who, feealling the Presidential elections they have assisted in, and contrasting their safe and their noble stimu-lations, their sublime moments, their admirable influences, as a training to a closer union and a ruer and intenser American feeling and life, with this one, does not confess some anxiety, some be-wilderment, some loathing, some fear? Those generous, animated, fraternal contendings of the American people for a choice of the successor of Washington—conducted in the name and under the control of two great parties, running, both of them, through and through the Union, into every State and every vicinage, every Congressional district and every school district and every parish, and binding Texas to Maine, and Georgia to New Hampshire, Missouri to Massachusetts, by a new artificial and vehement cohesion—a tle, not mystic, by which you greated overy man, greated a brother and an ally, "idem sentiestem de republice," that careful, just, and Constitutional recognition on overy party banner, by every party creed and code, in every party speech, and song, and procession of torchlight, the recognition of an equal title to love, regard, honor, equality. In equal title to love, regard, honor, equality, in each and every State and region—that studious and that admirable exclusion of all things sec-tions!, all things which rapposed the existence of a conflict of sections, all opinions, all theories of policy, all enterprises of philanthropy, all aims of all sorts in which his geographical and social po-sition could prevent any one American from sharequal as our Constitution, comprehensive as our liberty; these mighty minglings of minds and hearts in which Webster could address Virgin tans in the Capitol-square at Richmond, and Berrien and Bell and Leigh and Johnson could feel and highten the inspiration of Fancuil Hall and Bunker Hill—all everywhere at home; those Presidential contests which left our Union stronger. our mutual equatinance and respect closer and deeper, our country a dearer and fairer and grander ideal, hastening forward the growth of our nationality almost as much as a foreign war, without its blood, its crime, and its cost—is there no one, are there not hundreds here who recall and cornet then? gret them? Contracted with them and their day, does not this one and their day, does not this one and this time seem more a dream than a reality? Can we avoid the vain wish that it was only and all a dream? Does this attempt to weave and plait the two North wings of the old national parties into a single Northern one, and out the doubtern wing off altogether, strike you to be quite as far-sighted and safe as it is new and bold?

A Cheap Newspaper.

The Daily Democrat costs ten cents per week. In the temporary and local success which seemed a little while ago to attend it here, and which led cortain small editors, little speakers on low stumps, writers of bad novels and forgotten poems, preach ers of Pantheism and revilers of Jefferson ellent gentlemen so moral and so religious that hey could not rejoice at their country's victories over England—led those people to suppose they had all at once become your masters and mine; in that temporary and local success did you see nothing but rose colors and the dawn of the Mi contium? To combine States against States, in such a system as ours, has it been generally held a very happy device toward forming a more perest union and insuring domestic tranquility? ombine them thus against each other geographically—to take the whole wast range of the fre states, lying together, sixteen out of thirty-one. eventeen mill one out of five or six and twenty millions—the most populous, the strongest, the gainst the fewer numbers and slower growth, and saming relative power on the other slde; to bring this sectional maj rity under carry drill and stim-lus of pay and rations—to offer it as a party the Government of our country, its most coveted hon my, its largest salaries, all its sweets of patronage and place—to penetrate and fire so compact a mass with the still more delicious idea that they are moving for human rights and the equality man; to call out their elergy from the pulpit, to observe, the bedside of the dying, the chair of the aguirer, the hearth of the bereaved, to bless su orusade—to put in requisition every species the foreign and sophistry to impress on the generating that the end justifies the means—that the and here to be attained is to give Kaness to free iom, to staunch her blood and put out her free and then to execute the sublime and impression logms that all men are born free and equal. a earried out, it will prove to be a mere summer ex-cursion to Moscow? Will there be no bivouse in the snow; no avenging winter hanging on retreat No Leipsic; no Waterloo!

The following magnificent sketch of the conse-

That such a party, militant or triumphant, dections ring for the administration or in posession of it, must exert influences o. wide and va ious evil, even whether they do or do not reach to the everthrow of our system; that it accustoms the people of each section to turn from contem-plating that fair and grand ideal, the whole Ame-cies, and to find their country in ore of its frag-ments; a revolution of the public affections, and a abstitution of a new public life; that it accusoms them to exaggerate, intensity, and put for-rard into everything the one element of discord and diversity, and to neglect the cultivation of the less energetic elements of recembiance and anion; that in fixing their attention on a single subject, and that one appealing simply to passion and emotion, to pride, to fear, to moral sensibilities, it exasperates and embitters the general temper and sows the seeds of sentiments which we did not inherit, but which we may transmit—sentiments of the vehement and energetic class which form and uniform nations; that it has, to an ex traordinary degree, changed the tone of political discussion in this its own section, and made it inends to place moderate men and national men sends to place moderate men and national men. North and South, in a false position, by presenting to them the alternate of treason to the whole or treason to the section—thus putting moderate counsels to shame, and destroying the influence which might be used, and might help to restore the good temper and generous affection of the parts and the whole. That while it is organized to the single basis of resistance to what it called on the single basis of resistance to what it calls the slave power, it missonceives or disregards the true duties of the patriotism, philanthrepy, and Christianity of the free Sistes in the matter of we do er attempt, in whatsoever else our power comes short of our wishes in this regard, we are bound to know that discords and animosity on this subject between the North and South, however promoted, do but retard the training for freedom, and postpone the day of its gradual and peaceful attainment. If ye so hate the master, or so fear him, or so contend with him that ye rivet the fetters of the slave or lengthen the term slavery, what reward have ye or has he?

the present momentous struggle, carefully reflect on the following strikingly patriotic and high-toned thoughts:

With these opinions, fellow-citisens, in this election, I aim at one single object; I feel but one single hope and one single fear. To me, all of you, all men who aim at that object and share that hope and fear, seem allies, brothers, partners of a great toil; a great duty and a common fate. For the hour, opinions upon other things—old party creeds adopted for quiet times, old party names and symbols and equabbles and differences about details of administration, seem to me hushed superpended. irrelevant, trifling: the small cares names and symbols and rquabbles and differences about details of administration, seem to me hushed, suspended, irrelevant, trifling; the small caroe of a master of ceremonies in the palece on the morning of the Revolution, about red heels, small clothes and buckles in the shoe within an hour of the final storm. I care no more now whether my e-worker is a Democrat or an American, or an old Whig, a Northern man or a California man, than you should care if a fire fell on your city in winter and was drinking up your workshops and streets one after another, and houseless women and children, and old men and sick were seen hovering on the side of the river on the snow, whether he who passed or received your buckets was rocked in his cradle on this side of the sea or the other; whether he was an Armenian or Calvinist; a ten hours' labor man or a twenty-four hours' labor man. The election once over, we are our several ourselves again. If we get well, the sick man said, when with difficulty reconciled to his enemy, both being supposed dying, if we get well, it all goes for nothing.

It is impossible yet to ascertain the loss, but i ls immense. The Exchange Bank, Merchants' Bank and post-office are in ruins. I succeeded in saving most of the letters and records belonging to the post-office. I now occupy one corner the court-house. Thirty-four persons arrested for stealing goods. Great confusion and excitement.

NOVEMBER STORM .-- The storm of last nigh was one of the most severe with which Lake Erie is ever visited. Through the whole night the northwestern gale raged furiously, and lashed the lake into a white fome, and must have swept everything like a vessel from its surface. The North Star, Captain B. G. Sweet, was obliged to postpone her departure for Lake Superior. No news of any dieasters have reached us this morning; but, as the storm was accompanied by blinding snow and rain squalls, it is ressonable to expect that vessels outside could hardly survive Oleveland Plaindealer, 5th.

Circuit Court closed at this place late on last Saturday evening. Judge Goodloe presided the first week, being then called home, by the death of his father. The members of the bar placed Hon. Richard Hawes upon the bench, who presided with ability and dignity during the second week of the term. Several of the criminal cases were continued—there was one man sent to the State prism for two years, on a charge of heg stealing.—Ky. Statesman 5th.

A BIG MAJORITY .- A unanimous vote in these ays of high political excitement, when the whole ountry is divided and subdivided into political and religious organizations, is a result scarcely expected by many persons. But that such an vent has really occurred, is clearly proven. And it is an undeniable fact that on one subject the ote is unanimous, and that all parties, old and oung, native and foreign, bond and free, who ave tried Porter's Oriental Life Liniment, proounce it to be a valuable remedy for the relief nd cure of rheumatism, pains in the back and shoulders. It has been used with the greates uccess by thousands, and for the permanent curof old sores, tetter, ringworm, braises, cuts, prains, and frost-bites, it is infallible. nold&

"Go UP, THOU BALD HEAD"-To Prof. Wood's Store, No. 114 Market street, and get a bottle of his celebrated Hair Restorative, which will make the capillary substance vegetate on the summit of our cranium in a very short time. And all you ld gray-headed men, if you want your hair to re old gray-headed men, if you want your hair to resume its original color, it can be done by using Wood's Hair Restorative. It makes the hair soft and silky, and causes the "Hyperian curls" to cluster in elegant profusion. Many have tried it, and found it just the thing. DRAND'S PREMIUM STOCK

MILL is now admitted to be the best mill of the kind ex ant. It has, on several occasions, contended for the award of mrit with other mills, and particullarly with the famed "little Ganat," and in every instance has taken the premium. At a recent trial with the latter upon the Fair Grounds of the Sout western Agricultural and Mechanical "speciation, it again took the prize. It stands now without a rival.

This mill combines three principles—that of cutting with several stell blades, with that of crushing and grinding. It is heaver and stronger, and less liable to br ak or getout of repair, than any other mill before the public. It is more easily adjusted being set coarse or fine by a single secret, which may be done by a by ten years did It may be used for cutting and grinding applies, turnips, bets, and rurabasas; and with a small additional expense, will cut and grind com with shuck, which can be done by no other mill extant.
And dually, it has greater grinding surface, and will grind fluer, tester, and, easier, than any other mills of
